

European Economic Policies

Level:	Graduate
Course offered by:	Department of Economics
Type of course:	Lectures
Duration:	14 weeks, 2 hours a week
Prerequisites:	none
Evaluation:	"Written paper" on a relevant subject or "2 hours-long written exam, all study material allowed"
ECTS credits:	4

Aim of the Course:

Introduce students to the issues pertaining to economic policies. Explain the role and the place of economic stakeholders in the new global configuration. Present the main economic policies. Develop student understanding of the mechanisms underlying the implementation of any policy.

Main Topics:

Global economy vs. national and regional economy. Agricultural policies. Monetary policies. Budget policies. Policies in the field of competition. Structural and regional development policies.

Literature:

To be indicated at the start of the course